

BADGER

(Meles meles)

SIZE:
length 60-90 cm + 15 cm tail

Belongs to the mustelid family, like the weasel and stoat, and is the largest representative

WHERE TO SEE THEM:
undergrowth

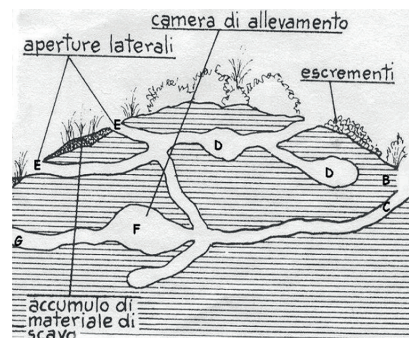

Lives in fairly large family clans

Digs burrows in the ground with multiple exits

Clear black mask from eyes to ears, front legs are designed for digging

Excrement is released outside the burrow

Omnivorous, feeds on tubers or small animals

Lives in the underbrush but can approach urban environments looking for food among the garbage

