

SALAMANDER

(Salamandra salamandra)

SIZE:
length 15-20 cm

WHERE TO SEE THEM:
undergrowth

Yellow spots indicate that its flesh is toxic, an excellent method to discourage predators!

Young salamanders are born with gills and are aquatic

When they grow up, they become terrestrial animals that breathe atmospheric air

Hides inside dead trunks or branches on the ground, searching for insects

