

SCRICCIOLO

(Troglodytes troglodytes)

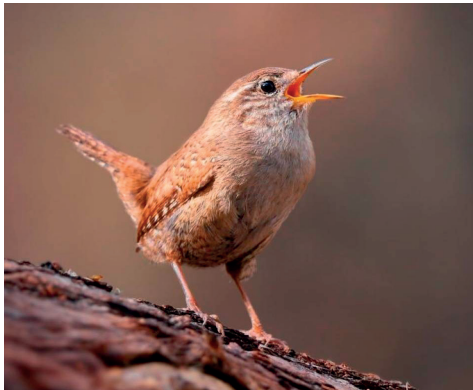

SIZE:
length 8-12 cm

WHERE TO SEE THEM:
undergrowth

Short tail pointing upwards and often moving

Its song is very high-pitched and repeated

The beak is designed to catch tiny insects
near the ground

It lives using small spaces between shrubs and low branches. It blends perfectly with dry leaves

